Floor test tomorrow

YEDDY is READY

- Pro-tem Speaker will decide in what manner the floor test should be held

New Delhi, May 18- The Supreme Court this morning ordered that a floor test be conducted at 4 pm tomorrow (May 19) to determine whether the day-old B.S. Yeddyurappa government in Karnataka has the support of the required number of MLAs to continue in the government. The BJP is 8-member short of the 112-majority mark and it has to rack up the numbers.

The SC Bench comprising Justices A.K. Sikri, S.A. Bobde and Ashok Bhushan heard a petition filed by the Congress-JD(S) combine against the decision of Karnataka Governor Vajubhai Rudabhai Vala to invite the BJP to form the government in the State. (See FLOOR TEST on page 8)

B.S. Yeddyurappa

BJP reacts: Ready for the floor test

In Bengaluru, Chief Minister B.S. Yeddyurappa told reporters that he was ready to prove majority. "We will prove the majority on the floor of the House tomorrow. Will discuss with Chief Secretary and call for Assembly Session tomorrow," Yeddyurappa added.

BJP leader Shobha Karandlaje said, "We welcome the Supreme Court's order. We are ready for the floor test and will prove the majority tomorrow." Union Minister Prakash Javadekar said, "BJP is ready and confident of winning trust vote. We will prove our majority on the floor of the House."

Ownership of nobody's property

The fever of Swachh Bharat Abhiyan, launched on October 2, 2014 and the fervour displayed by the nation's people at large to sweep the streets, mop the living spaces, gather the garbage mass as well as sanitise every nook and corner in both urban and rural areas across the country have currently come down on scale and pace witnessed during the days, weeks and months of the mission's first year, yielding place in the columns of dailies and channels of television players to matters both a) Unrelated to the landmark measure of keeping the country free of dirt and b) the usual unedifying scenes created by the vote-seekers, a feature created in Karnataka from the word 'go' of Election Commission announcing the poll to the State's Legislative Assembly on 27th March, 2018. The mission of cleaning the country's environment got unwittingly sidelined resulting in fouling up the land's public spaces in the form of noise pollution, road shows by the politicos disrupting order in daily life, erecting larger-than-life cut-outs of netas, not to forget mutually exchanging indecorous expletives, amusing some sections in society and annoying the rest.

Public spaces such as parks, roads, buildings housing government offices as well as schools and colleges belong to people at large in general but nobody in particular raising the question of both ownership and responsibility of keeping these public assets in a state of good repair. While the contribution of people in any given residential area to fouling these public spaces is not conceded, the responsibility of the urban local body to keep them tidy and the failure in the task are trumped up.

The components of urban infrastructure and also the civic services to be provided to the tax-paying society by the authorities make a long list. The pipes bringing treated water to the interior of the dwellings of residents, the drains in which sewage flows without clogging, the overhead cables carrying the indispensable electric power for lighting homes and streets, the shade-giving trees that have been standing all along the roadsides, play grounds merrily used for sporting activities without a care for their upkeep, parks at the disposal of morning walkers and what have you cost a bomb to be created and maintained, a fact that hardly anybody among the beneficiaries is aware of. There lies the point of nobody owning and taking care of everybody's asset, either because of or despite the country being a democracy, thought to be by the people, for the people and most importantly, of the people.

Some may find the remark that the nation's people are making a mockery of democracy as harsh. What do they have to say on reading in the dailies about theft of sandal wood, robbing the tusks of elephants by poaching in the forests, stealing river sand and so on, which are all decidedly government property owned by nobody in particular and everybody in general?

EDITOR'S BOTTOMLINE

My heart goes out to those of the 2,655 candidates who lost the elections to the Karnataka Assembly. After all, only 222 could win. Let us turn our attention to the chosen 222, whose toil or purse bore fruit. Sir, most of you are all crorepatis. True, your purse is now a bit thinner by a couple of crores. That is the price you paid to get elected. But I am sure, you will earn it back soon. After all, it is the investment that you made which will earn you profit. If not, you would not have entered the fray in the first place. But sir, being a crorepati, please don't look forward to foreign junkets, aka study tours, at our expense. You can certainly afford one. When you travel on your own you don't have to give a study report to the Speaker. You are saved of that bother. —H.N. Ananda in Deccan Herald.

Doll that grows human hair

Hokkaido (Japan): Okiku, aka "The Haunted Doll of Hokkaido" is a creepy old Japanese doll at a temple in Iwamizawa Temple that allegedly grows human hair. It is also said to be haunted by the spirit of a little girl.

It is said that the tree-year-old girl, called Kikuko, loved the doll very much. Kikuko died one day after catching a cold, and that's when things started getting strange.

The girl's family placed the doll in a small shrine for remembrance and named it as "Okiku', after their lost daughter, and started praying to it. When they noticed that the doll had noticeably longer hair they took this as a sign that the doll was haunted by Kikuko's spirit.

Kikuko's family decided to move from Hokkaido, so they entrusted it to Mannenji Temple, and shared with them its creepy secret. People often come to see its legendary human hair for themselves, but they are not allowed to photograph it.

Dog uses money to pay for treats

Monterrey: Negro, the dog, became a social media sensation after a teacher shared some photos and a video of the dog paying for treats with tree leaves. After observing humans handing out money in exchange for the tasty treats, he decided to try it out for himself. But he used tree leaves as currency.

Impressed with the animal's understanding of commerce, the seller took the leaf and gave him a cookie. Negro took it as a confirmation that his currency is acceptable and has been paying for treats with leaves ever since. But the stall attendant limits his purchases to about two a day, mostly to make sure he doesn't get too fat.

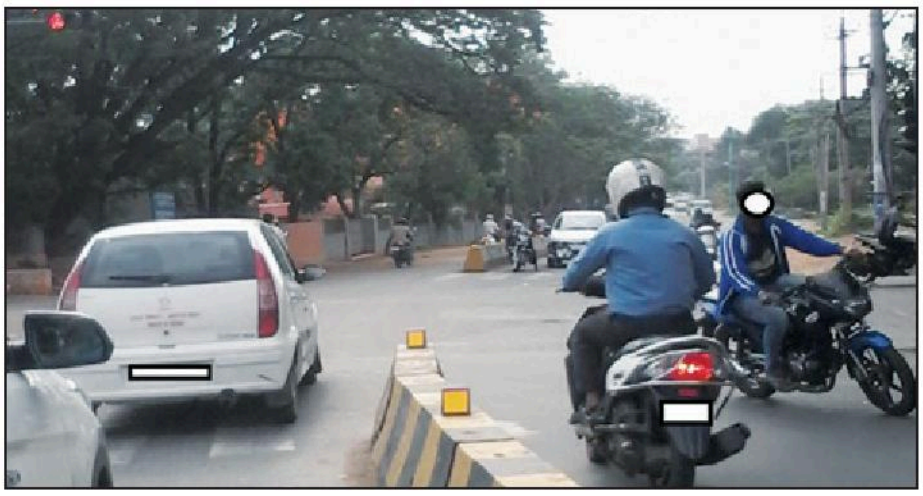
Signal jumping near AIISH Circle



Sir,

Deliberate signal jumping and not following the lane discipline, that is, driving on the other side of the road divider, especially at the Circles, has become quite common in city. In a recent incident, I have noticed a narrow escape from a head-on collision between a scooter and bike near AIISH Circle on Bogadi road (see pic).

A rider of a scooter while coming from the Bogadi side was in a hurry to cross the Circle and violated the lane discipline by riding on the other side of the divider. At the same time, a helmetless biker coming from SJCE side violated red signal (red signal indicating to wait one more second for Bogadi side traffic to move) and took a right turn to proceed towards Bogadi. The rider on the scooter got a shock to see the bike suddenly taking a turn towards him. To their luck, there was no collision between the two vehicles.

In terms of road safety, both actions are unacceptable and avoidable. Long time back a teenager had a narrow escape from a collision with a bus when he violated lane discipline at this Circle nearly a year ago. It has become a common feature even for cars and autos to violate lane discipline across all such Circles in the city and driving in a risky way. People are losing patience on the road and in a hurry violating road safety rules, which is to be discouraged by one and all, as WHO said 'most of the road accidents are avoidable in nature'.

Madikeri Deputy Tahsildar trapped for accepting bribe

Officer was caught red-handed by Anti-Corruption Bureau while receiving Rs. 5,000 from Cop

Madikeri, May 18 (PS&BCT)- A Deputy Tahsildar in Kodagu district has been trapped by the Anti-Corruption Bureau (ACB) for accepting a bribe from a Police Constable yesterday.

The officer is Umesh, who was working as a Deputy Tahsildar at the office of Madikeri Assistant Commissioner. He was caught red-handed while accepting Rs. 5,000 from Ramesh, the Police Constable.

According to the ACB sleuths, Ramesh is a retired ex-serviceman and was working as a Cop in Virajpet Rural Police Station. He had 6-cents land in Virajpet and had approached the Virajpet Tahsildar urging the officer to provide Record of Rights, Tenancy and Crops (RTC) for the land.

Dy. Tahsidhar Umesh

The Virajpet Tahsildar told Ramesh to get the issue resolved from the District Assistant Commissioner's Office. Accordingly, Ramesh applied for RTC before the Madikeri Assistant Commissioner in December last year and the land issue came up before the Assistant Commissioner's Court and the hearing was held.

During the time of the hearing, the Assistant Commissioner's Court directed Ramesh not to come for the second hearing and he would be informed after all the documents pertaining to his land are ready. Deputy Tahsildar had communicated this to Ramesh.

Though the orders were in Ramesh's favour, he had to approach Umesh several times as his work was not done. According to Ramesh, he met Umesh several times seeking RTC for his land but got evasive replies. Ramesh then voluntarily offered Rs. 2,000 to Umesh and pleaded him to issue the RTC. Still the work was not done.

ACB sleuths said that when Ramesh repeatedly approached Deputy Tahsildar Umesh, the latter demanded a bribe of Rs. 7,000. The Cop then told the officer that he would be able to pay only Rs. 5,000 and the officer agreed for the deal. Ramesh then approached the ACB and lodged a complaint.

Following the complaint, the ACB sleuths laid a trap and caught Umesh red-handed while accepting Rs. 5,000 from Ramesh last evening. As soon as Umesh realised that he was trapped, he slid the currency notes into his pants. The money along with the pants has been seized by the ACB.

The trapping operation was carried out by ACB Superintendent of Police Umesh, Dy.SP Umesh Nayak, Circle Inspector Mahesh and Doddasiddegowda. ACB staff Dinesh, Sajan, Lohit, Rajesh, Suresh, Deepika and Ashwin Kumar participated.

The Chinese authorities should release him immediately and grant him freedom to lead a normal life and the Chinese should also free Tashi Wangchuk and other political prisoners, demanded Dorjee.

Tserin Lakkap, Tenzin Dolma, Chung Tserin and others were present at the press meet.

The City Top Cop has confirmed that no one has been taken into custody in connection with the hacking case besides stating that no EVM was hacked in the recently concluded Assembly polls.

Moments after taking over as CM,

Yeddy orders transfer of IPS Officers

Advocate Prabhuling K. Navadagi is new Advocate General; V.P. Hukkeri is CM's Personal Secretary

Chief Minister B.S. Yeddyurappa offering puja to the chair before assuming office at Vidhana Soudha yesterday as Chief Secretary K. Ratna Prabha and others look on.

Bengaluru, May 18- In a series of transfers of officials in crucial posts, two top Police intelligence officials and the Additional Chief Secretary to former Chief Minister Siddharamaiah, were replaced within hours after B.S. Yeddyurappa took oath as the Chief Minister.

Senior Advocate Prabhuling K. Navadagi has been appointed the new Advocate General by the Governor following the resignation of Madhusudhan R. Naik. Shivamogga ZP CEO V.P. Hukkeri has been appointed as Yeddyurappa's Personal Secretary. Sources said that Hukkeri is the close confidant of Yeddyurappa. While Amar Kumar Pandey has been appointed as new ADGP in place of A.M. Prasad, Sandeep Patil has been appointed as new Deputy Inspector General of Police in place of Hemanth Nimbalkar.

Incidentally, Nimbalkar's wife Anjali Nimbalkar has won from Khanapura constituency in Belagavi on a Congress ticket. Meanwhile, senior IAS officer and Additional Chief Secretary M. Lakshminarayan has been transferred as Additional Chief Secretary to CM, replacing L.K. Atheeq. SP, Anti-Corruption Bureau, S. Girish has been posted as DCP (North East) Bengaluru city.

Other transfers also appear to be effects of the political developments of the day. Replacing B. Ramesh, the government transferred K. Annamalai, who was SP, Chikkamagaluru, as SP, Ramanagaram. This attains significance as Eagleton Resorts, Bidadi, where Congress had been hoarding its MLAs falls under the district and minutes after the transfer, the Police security given to the resort was withdrawn.

Dr. Chandragupta, who was DCP (Central) Bengaluru, was also moved out to be replaced by D. Devaraj, who was SP, Bidar. This is reportedly as the CM was unhappy at how the Congress-JD(S) MLAs and leaders were let into the Vidhana Soudha to hold a protest against his swearing-in.

Mysuru, May 18- Studies and surveys have revealed that India's current per capita water consumption is at 150 litres a day. The country is expected to suffer persistent water shortage by 2020 with the per capita accessibility of water coming down to less than 1,000 cubic meters.

One source of water wastage is vehicle washing and this number is set to soar as more vehicles get on the road. Mysuru has over 3 lakh private vehicles and assuming 10 litres of water is needed on an average for a single vehicle wash, the wastage of water is humongous — nearly 30 lakh litres of water every day.

In what could be tagged as a pioneering initiative to provide an environment-friendly car wash service in Mysuru, a group of automobile enthusiasts have started 'Clean Our Car' — Waterless car wash. This group consists of four friends who have studied engineering — Vikas Raj, Chetan Somashekar, Sachin Srikanth and Ganesh Prasad.

Vikas and Chetan have done their Master's in Automobile Service Technology from Germany while Sachin has done his Master's in Surface Technology (Germany) and Ganesh Mechanical Engineering in Malnad. These like-minded friends have quit their jobs and thus 'Clean Our Car' took birth in Mysuru.

Speaking to Star of Mysore, Vikas Raj said, "Lots of water is being consumed for washing cars and during summer and drought situations, washing cars and scarcity of water is a huge concern. We are related to the automobile industry and were experimenting with this idea from Sept. last year. It became a reality in Nov."

About water savings, he said, "This can save lots of water. A normal car wash in service stations requires about 160 litres of water per car and so does the traditional and automated car washing techniques. The latest foam wash method too consumes about 90 litres of water for a single car. We wanted to change this concept. We use only about 3 to 5 litres of water per car and we provide door-step service to customers. The response in Mysuru has been very good."

The team uses a biodegradable solution to wash the car. The surfactants in their formula helps remove dirt and suspends it from the car's surface. It creates a thin film between the paint surface and the dirt, which helps clean the surface without scratching it. The solution dilutes mud, sand and dust particles rather than dissolving them.

Their formula contains active agents which lift dirt and grime from the pores, encapsulating it and making the surface easier to clean. The solvent is a protector-cum-shiner. It contains natural wax which protects against dust and ultraviolet rays, preventing fading of plastic and fibre parts.

Clean Our Car ensures that your car is neat and clean within one hour. Though the team has their office set up in Kuvempunagar, customers can ask for door-step service. And the prices that they offer are reasonable. They charge about Rs. 260 for a basic car wash, around Rs. 290 for exterior as well as interior car wash and Rs. 320 for a special exterior and interior plus car wash. They also have several other packages.

Vikas adds, "We use this biodegradable formula which has no harsh chemicals and thus it does not damage the surface of the body. The dust does not stick to the surface of the car as the solvent has the formula of a blend of wax coating. Customers can use Clean Our Car App. Once registered, with just a click of a button we will be there at their doorstep to wash their car. We have services like exterior cleaning, interior cleaning, interior polishing, tyre dressing, wheel shine, interior vacuum, door sill cleaning, door pads cleaning, etc."

CNC demands Living Entity Status to River Cauvery

Jatha from Talacauvery to Poompuhar in TN on May 24

Madikeri, May 18- The Codava National Council (CNC) has demanded the government to accord Living Entity status to River Cauvery to protect it from further destruction. A 'Vehicle Jatha' will be organised from Talacauvery, the birthplace of River Cauvery in Kodagu, in this regard on May 24.

This was disclosed by CNC President N.U. Nachappa at a press conference held at Madikeri Press Club recently where he said that according "Living entity with legal person status" will stop unscrupulous elements from misusing the river water and polluting it.

The Jatha will begin at Talacauvery on May 24 and will cover the Cauvery Basin from Talacauvery to Mysuru, Mandya in Karnataka, Dharmapuri, Salem, Erode, Tiruchirapalli, Tanjavoor, Srirangam and Poompuhar in Tamil Nadu where the river meets the sea.

The jatha participants will cover the entire distance from Talacauvery to Poompuhar and hold public meetings at many places to bring awareness among people about the destructive industries, resorts and other constructions that are proving a nemesis for the river, he said. Participants of the jatha will halt at temples located on the banks of the river and will inspire people to save the only lifeline of South India, he said.

Nachappa said that if Living Entity status is granted to River Cauvery, the river will be legally treated as "living people," and as such, would enjoy "all corresponding rights, duties and liabilities of a living person."

For the first time in the world, a river in New Zealand, the Wanganui, was granted legal rights as a human being. It was a culmination of over a decade-long effort by the local Maori tribe. "The reason we have taken this approach is because we consider the River as an ancestor and always worshipped it," he said.

The River is central to the existence of the people living in the Cauvery basin and also people living in Mysuru, Mandya and Bengaluru. Cauvery has provided both physical and spiritual sustenance to all of us from time immemorial. They support and assist both the life and natural resources and health and well-being of the entire community. River Cauvery is breathing, living and sustaining communities from mountains to sea, he opined.

"We need to protect, conserve and preserve the rivers and their tributaries and the Living Entity status will enable us to initiate all legal proceedings to protect the interest of the rivers. Simply put, the Living Entity status makes it easier to take action against those who pollute the river," he added. The CNC, demanding Living Entity status for Cauvery, had submitted memorandums to the Centre and the State in March 2017. The jatha will take the issue to a logical end," Nachappa said.

Special drive to clean up 24 beaches and river fronts

New Delhi, May 18- At least four Karnataka beaches — Panambur, Malpe, Gokarna and Karwar — will be cleaned up in a special drive launched by the Union Environment Ministry ahead of the World Environment Day (June 5).

They are among 24 beaches in nine States to be cleared of the garbage and other contaminants with the involvement of local communities and school children. In addition, 24 river fronts in 19 States including Pennar and Cauvery waterfront in Karnataka too would be spruced up.

An amount of Rs. 10 lakh has been earmarked for each stretch of beach, river front and lake. The Ministry has formed 19 teams comprising senior officials, State agencies and school eco clubs, to take up cleaning of beaches, river fronts and lakes, the Ministry says in a statement.

Some of the other beaches to be cleaned up in the special drive include Calangute, Miramar and Colva in Goa; Kanur and Calicut in Kerala; Kanyakumari, Ennore and Palavakkam in Tamil Nadu and Bakhkhali and Tajpur in West Bengal.

The clean-up operation will conclude on June 5. This year India is the global host of United Nation's World Environment Day celebrations.

Union Environment Minister Harsh Vardhan wrote to school Principals across the country, requesting them to declare their schools free from plastic pollution by prohibiting plastic items like water bottles, bags, cups, plates, water jugs, folders, trays and pen stands. The schools have also been advised to adopt a water body, pond, wetland, beach or an eco-sensitive area around the school and make them plastic-free.

Karnataka political drama scene shifts to Hyderabad

MLA G.T. Devegowda in discussion with other MLAs at a resort in Hyderabad this morning.

Bengaluru / Hyderabad, May 18 (KMS,RK&BCT)- The scene of the Karnataka political drama was shifted to Hyderabad with the arrival of the newly-elected Congress and JD(S) MLAs this morning just as the Supreme Court ordered a floor test for the B.S. Yeddyurappa-led BJP government tomorrow at 4 pm.

Fearing poaching by the BJP, two buses started from Bengaluru around 12:15 midnight on Thursday and zoomed down the Bengaluru-Hyderabad Highway in scenes straight out of a thriller. The buses were closely followed by cars and SUVs that had bouncers and private security guards.

The hide-and-seek started shortly after BJP's B.S. Yeddyurappa was sworn in as CM, an abbreviated ceremony that followed a night-long Supreme Court hearing in which judges allowed the oath ceremony.

After one hour of journey, some of the lawmakers shifted to a third bus, a sleeper, for a more comfortable ride. After an eight-hour journey, one of the buses drove into Hyderabad city and stopped at the Hyatt Regency. Another bus went to the Taj Krishna, where the hotel's staff were seen trying to ensure that the media did not enter the lobby. One more bus carried the MLAs to Novotel Hotel and sources said that bus carried JD(S) MLAs.

To keep their lawmakers away from inducements, offers and threats from the BJP — as they allege — the Congress and JD(S) had planned chartered flights out of Bengaluru. Around 11:30 pm, however, the flights were cancelled. "We didn't get permission. The airline operators refused," said Congress leader D.K. Shivakumar, who organised the bus trip to Hyderabad.

About an hour later, the buses drove out of Eagleton, a private resort in Bengaluru where the Congress lawmakers had been put up, and Shangri-La, a luxury hotel where the JD(S) legislators had been staying.

Around 1:30 am, the sleeper bus joined the little convoy. Water, blankets, food were arranged on the fly. A journey of 500 kilometres took eight hours.

Around 5 am, as the lawmakers stopped for a tea or coffee break about 80 km from Hyderabad. The MLAs arrived in three buses of SRS Travels and Orange Travels.

No time to relax for Congress, JD(S) MLAs

Bengaluru, May 18 (KMS& BCT)- With dramatic developments unfolding in Karnataka after the State threw up a fractured mandate, there has been no time to relax for Congress and JD(S) MLAs, who soon after the results had to travel to Bengaluru to be present at the CLP meeting next day, and the same evening were shifted to Eagleton Resort and Hotel Shangri-La with allegations of horse-trading doing the rounds.

Now they have been shifted to Hyderabad and are lodged in Hyatt Regency, Taj Krishna and Novotel Hotel. With the Supreme Court asking Chief Minister Yeddyurappa to prove majority on the floor of the House tomorrow at 4 pm, they have to rush back to Bengaluru.

Sources said that the Assembly session will be convened tomorrow at 11 am and Governor Vajubhai Rudabhai Vala may announce the appointment of Pro-tem Speaker and it will be followed by administering oath to newly-elected MLAs. Senior Congress leader R.V. Deshpande and BJP leader and former Minister Vishveshwar Hegde Kageri's names are floating for appointment as the Pro-tem Speaker.

As the session will begin at 11 am, the Congress and JD(S) MLAs must reach Bengaluru by then. Sources said that arrangements are being made for the MLAs to travel by special plane or by bus. Many MLAs are complaining of fatigue and are not ready to travel for another eight hours by bus, sources said.

Many MLAs are yet to catch up on lost sleep and thanks to growing tension, they are hooked to televisions and smartphones watching news and calling their families.

The Bench also restrained Yeddyurappa from taking any major policy decisions till after the floor test. It further restrained the new Karnataka government from nominating any Anglo-Indian member to the House till it proves its majority. The Bench said all MLAs will vote tomorrow. Pro-tem Speaker will decide in what manner the floor test should be held.

The Apex Court yesterday had given Attorney General K.K. Venugopal 48 hours to produce the two letters written to the Governor by Yeddyurappa. The top law officer had to procure the documents from the Governor and produce them at 10.30 am today.

Senior Advocates Abhishek Manu Singhvi and Kapil Sibal represented the Congress and the JD(S) while former Attorney General Mukul Rohatgi represented Yeddyurappa.

While the Congress and the JD(S) welcomed the SC order, Yeddyurappa's counsel Mukul Rohatgi urged the Bench to reconsider saying it was too soon. Earlier, Venugopal asked the Bench if it would consider secret ballots, but the Bench rejected the suggestion. However, in the final judgement, the Bench said that the Pro-tem Speaker will decide what manner the floor test should be held.

Yeddyurappa was administered the oath of office by Governor Vajubhai Vala yesterday morning, hours after the SC heard a plea by post-poll allies Congress-JD(S) challenging Vala's decision to invite the BJP to form the government.

COURT PROCEEDINGS

As the Court assembled, Rohatgi handed over Yeddyurappa's letter to the Governor to the three judges. He told the Bench that Yeddyurappa has been elected as the leader of the largest party (BJP) and that he has the required support of the MLAs and is also ready to prove it on the floor of the House.

During the hearing, Justice A.K. Sikri said, "On one hand, there is a party which has given names and on the other, there is a party which simply claims it has the support. How do we decide? As per the Sarkaria Commission, the largest party should be invited to form the government. If that's not possible, pre-poll alliance is highest as people would have known them coming together."

The Judge added, "There are two options: Either we hear the matter in full and decide, or we call for a floor test tomorrow. Ultimately, it has to be tested on the floor of the House."

Advocate Abhishek Manu Singhvi said, "The question is, is it fair to call those with lesser numbers?" To this, Justice S.A. Bobde replied, "Whoever may be called, the decision is that of the House." "Yeddyurappa's letter claiming support was even before the results were out," Singhvi told the Bench.

SECURITY FOR MLAs

In case of a floor test, Singhvi sought proper security for Congress and JD(S) MLAs, to which the top Court said that it can pass an order to make necessary security arrangements.

At this point, Rohatgi told the Bench, "Need reasonable time. (Floor test) should not be tomorrow. I am disputing the signatures of Congress members. Floor test will show how many signatures they really had. Governor never received a signed letter."

He also said "I don't think floor test should be held tomorrow. Pro-tem Speaker has to be appointed, etc. People should be given a reasonable time. Not tomorrow. Not fair. I have to also get my flock. Their people are locked up, not mine."

To this, Justice Sikri replied, "Sorry, can't compromise on that."

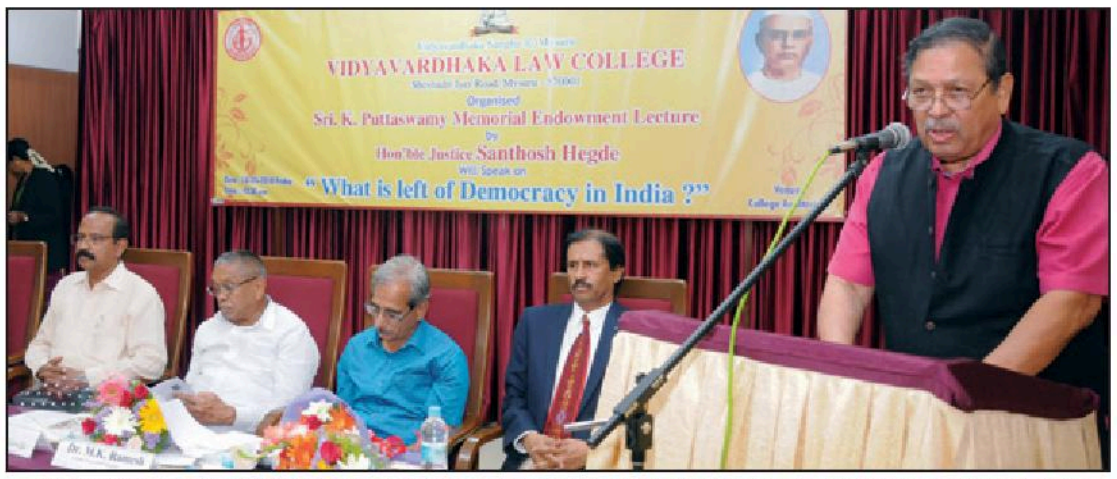
Justice Santosh Hegde's call to youth to build society boycotting corrupt

Mysuru, May 18 (PM&NNN)- Giving a call to the youth to boycott the corrupt in the country in all walks of life to build a healthy society, former Supreme Court Judge and former Lokayukta Justice Santosh Hegde said that if the youth have to earn wealth it should be within the limits of the law and not by amassing it illegally.

He was delivering the 'Late K. Puttaswamy Memorial Endowment Lecture' on the topic "What is left of Democracy in India?" organised by the Vidyavardhaka Law College at its premises on Seshadri Iyer Road, here this morning and said that plundering nation's wealth at the cost of the poor is an inhuman act.

"When the Constitution of the country was framed nearly 70 years ago, 80 per cent of country was illiterate. Hence, the Architect of the Constitution Dr. B.R. Ambedkar in his wisdom had not made educational qualifications compulsory for politicians to fight elections. However, things have changed and the way the elected representatives function in the Parliament and Assembly has dropped to abysmal levels," he regretted.

Referring to former Lok Sabha Speaker Somnath Chatterjee lamenting the falling standards in Parliament with frequent disruptions and the fight between the Ruling party and Opposition getting worse, Justice Hegde said that the Bills are passed without debates or discussions.



Former Lokayukta Justice Santosh Hegde delivering a lecture at Vidyavardhaka Law College in city this morning as Law College Principal Prof. K.B. Vasudeva, NLSIU Professor Dr. M.K. Ramesh, Vidyavardhaka Sangha President Gundappa Gowda and Secretary P. Vishwanath look on.

The bureaucrats are also caught in this web and the nexus between them and the politicians has led to large scale corruption, which has resulted in major problems in the country, he observed.

One of the strongest pillars in Indian Democracy is the Judiciary and the Supreme Court acts as the watchdog of the nation. However, allegations are being hurled at the SC Judges and even the Chief Justice of India, and the dissidence in their community is coming out in the open with the SC Judges holding press conference and with such actions the very faith in the Judiciary among the people is eroded, lamented Justice Hegde.

Unlike 70 years ago when India gained independence, 80 per cent of the people are literate and hence it is very important for the rulers to be transparent in their approach to the problems of the people. Sadly, however, the political class has become selfish and is interested only in self aggrandisement, he added.

"India is a multi-religious, multi-cultural and multi-ethnic society and the Constitution was framed keeping in view this unique character. However, a Union Minister is wanting to change this very Constitution with his Hindutva ideology," he ridiculed.

Hence, today's youth have a great responsibility to fight such forces and strengthen democracy and build a healthy society by being alert, said Justice Hegde.

Dr. M.K. Ramesh, Professor of Law, National Law School of India University (NLSIU), Bengaluru, also spoke. Vidyavardhaka Law College Principal Prof. K.B. Vasudeva welcomed.

AB de Villiers stars in RCB's thrilling win over Sunrisers

With this win, RCB stays alive in the 11th edition of IPL

Bengaluru, May 18- Needing 20 runs in the final over, Sunrisers Hyderabad (SRH) could only muster six runs off medium-pacer Siraj and lost by 14-runs in an exciting tie at Chinnaswamy Stadium here on Thursday.

SRH skipper Kane Williamson played a blinder once again but Manish Pandey playing 3 dot balls in the last 3 overs of the innings was just not on when the team was chasing 219 for a win.

The duo did put on 135 runs for the third wicket — the highest partnership of the season — but it wasn't easy as Royal Challengers Bangalore (RCB) won the thriller by 14 runs to stay alive in the 11th edition of the Indian Premier League (IPL). They now face Rajasthan Royals (RR) on Saturday as they look to sneak into the playoffs.

Chasing 219 to record the most successful chase of the IPL, SRH started well with Shikhar Dhawan and Alex Hales looking to take the attack to the RCB bowlers from the word go. But Yuzvendra Chahal struck in the 6th over as Dhawan (18) went back to the hut. Hales (37) left two overs later after he got two chances, but failed to cash in as AB de Villiers picked a blinder at mid-wicket boundary.

While the Bangalore players celebrated, what followed was a master-class from Williamson. In fact, with the team needing 89 off 6 overs, he launched into Colin de Grandhomme along with Manish as they picked 22 runs from the over. That made it 67 needed off 30 balls and it looked like SRH was in cruise mode with the skipper guiding the ship out of troubled waters. In the end, SRH needed 20 off the last over and with Siraj dismissing Williamson (81) off the first ball, it was a game in the bag as RCB lives to fight another day in this IPL.

Earlier, the Royal Challengers Bangalore were off to poor start after being put into bat by Kane Williamson. Parthiv Patel departed in the very first over after his attempted pull shot off the bowling of Sandeep Sharma landed in the hands of the thirdman fielder.

Kohli was joined in the middle by AB de Villiers and the South African maestro announced his intentions at the beginning itself as he hit Shakib Hasan for consecutive boundaries in the second over and followed the same pattern by creaming the first two deliveries of the third over bowled by Sandeep Sharma to boundary.

Williamson introduced his best bowler, Rashid Khan in the fifth over and it paid dividends immediately. Kohli hit Rashid for a boundary through the mid-wicket region off the fourth delivery of the over. He tried to slog sweep the Afghan spinner again and completely missed the googly, which went and crashed into the stumps. Kohli departed for 12 and RCB were in a spot of bother at 38/2.

Moeen Ali joined de Villiers in the middle. While de Villiers kept getting the odd boundary away, Ali was all at sea against the spin of Rashid Khan. But the Englishman's struggles ended in the eighth over as medium pacer Basil Thampi was introduced into the attack.

Ali got stuck into the youngster as he smashed him for two massive sixes off the first two deliveries of the eighth over. de Villiers slammed his 27th IPL fifty in the 12th over. Moeen Ali followed suit to bring up his maiden IPL fifty in the next over, Ali's half-century coming off just 25 balls — de Villiers (69) and Ali (65). Colin de Grandhomme took centre-stage with 40 off 17. Sarfaraz Khan gave the finishing touches with an eight-ball 22 runs as RCB posted a mammoth 218/6.

WORD OF THE DAY

Paraph

Pronunciation: Paraf.

Meaning: A flourish made after a signature, as in a document, originally as a precaution against forgery.
Origin: A paraph is the flamboyant flourish at the end of a signature to prevent forgery. The most famous and perhaps only paraph familiar to modern Americans is the one at the end of John Hancock's signature on the Declaration of Independence. Paraph comes from Middle French paraphe or paraffe "abbreviated signature," which is either a shortening of Late Latin paragraphus "a short horizontal line below the beginning of a line and marking a break in the sense," or Medieval Latin paraphus "a flourish at the end of a signature." Paraph entered English in the late 14th century.

THE ODD WORD

Discombobulate

Disconcert or confuse (someone).

PHRASE OF THE DAY

Know the ropes

Meaning: To understand how to do something. To be acquainted with all the methods required.

Origin: It seems obvious that this expression derives from the need to sailors to know how to tie knots to secure rigging on sailing boats. It may well have a nautical origin — sailors certainly did have to learn which rope raised which sail and also had to learn a myriad of knots. However, there is also a suggestion that it comes from the world of the theatre, where ropes are also used, to raise scenery etc.
The first known use of the expression in print is a figurative one, that is, one where no actual rope is being referred to. It comes in James Skene's travel mémoire Italian Journey, 1802: I am a stranger and... I beg you to show me how I ought to proceed... You know the ropes and can give me good advice.
